Here are some random facts that I hope will paint a clearer picture of who I am and what I'm like:

* I moved to the Bay Area about 3 years ago from Chicago, IL and I love it here. (Not knocking Chicago of course, if the weather was more like it is out here I would totally consider moving back!)

* Someday I hope to do more travelling. I have seen a great deal of the United States but other than hiking in some rural parts of Canada I haven't seen much outside of the country.

* I work as a freelance lighting and A/V technician and stagehand.

* I love to cook and make drinks (I used to bartend and love to make drinks from scratch - margaritas are my specialty). Partially because food is delicious, but also because I love community, and what better way to bring people together than by feeding them!

* I'm a social nerd/geek. I used to work at a renaissance faire (and still love to go when I have the chance!), I like playing board games and the occasional RPG, and I have had a love affair with Batman for many years now. I also love to read! I devour epic fantasy novels and science fiction, as well as the classics and whatever my friends happen to recommend/ loan me.

* I like sports, especially football and hockey (go Blackhawks!!)!! I also love going to baseball games, throwing frisbees, and playing catch in the park.

* Once upon a time (aka a few years ago) I was very into discovering and brewing great beer, but I unfortunately have discovered since then that I can't tolerate gluten (so sad!!) but if beer is your game I can talk to you about it all day long and if you're staying with me I have tons of great places to recommend!

* I love to be outside whenever I can especially when it's sunny, and I love to take long walks be it a nature hike or exploring a city. I also tend to bring a small kite with me wherever I go, you know. . . just in case.

* I love to dance! Swing, salsa, balroom, blues, zydeco. . . I'm in! I have also tap danced since I was 5 years old. (I used to teach beginning ballroom and swing too, so if you want a quick lesson I'm happy to impart my knowledge!)

I hope that's enough to give you some idea of who I am. If you have any questions for me please ask away!" ,within a day,90%,90%,f,https://a1.muscache.com/im/users/19752500/profile_pic/1407631956/original.jpg?aki_policy=profile_small,https://a1.muscache.com/im/users/19752500/profile_pic/1407631956/original.jpg?aki_policy=profile_x_medium,Oak Center,1,1,"['email', 'phone', 'facebook', 'reviews', 'jumio']",t,t,"A 10th St, Oakland, CA 94607, United States",Oak Center,Acorn-Acorn Industrial,,Oakland,CA,94607,"East Bay, CA", "Oakland, CA",US,United States,37.805924171988956,-122.28888240840386,t,Apartment,Private room,2,1.0,1,1,Real Bed,"{TV,Internet,""Wireless Internet""",Kitchen,""Free Parking on Premises""",Heating,""Family/Kid Friendly""",""Smoke Detector""",""Carbon Monoxide Detector""",Essentials,Shampoo,""24-Hour Check-in""",Hangers,""Hair Dryer""",Iron,""Laptop Friendly Workspace"""}",,$65.00,$372.00,,,$300.00,$5.00,1,$0.00,2,10,yesterday,,9,15,15,18,2016-05-04,31,2015-07-06,2016-03-26,92,10,10,10,10,8,10,f,,OAKLAND,f,moderate,f,f,1,3.066093412,https://www.airbnb.com/rooms/6093412,20160504080024,2016-05-04,Cozy room close to Bart Station,Close to BART and nice and quiet with a decent street view and sunlight exposure,Nice quiet part of Oakland,"Close to BART and nice and quiet with a decent street view and sunlight exposure Nice quiet part of Oakland Washer, dryer, dishwasher, bathroom, Internet, all available. Both of us work ",none,"The Uptown district is a short walk away and has a vibrant restaurant and bar scene. Perhaps you can take in an event in the beautiful restored Paramount or Fox Theatres within an easy walk. The Grand Lake/Lakeshore area features shopping, restaurants, cafes and movies - that's just a nice 15 minute walk. Or try Piedmont avenue just a mile in the other direction. Our neighbourhood of Adam's Point puts all of the Bay Area within easy reach!","Our home is very walkable to BART - the rapid transit to San Francisco. With a 12 minute walk and a 12 minute ride, you will be in the heart of San Francisco! There's a Whole Foods market on our very block, and many restaurants in the Uptown and Grand Lake Disticts just a short walk away. Did you know Downtown Oakland has a lake? It's a beautiful and safe 3 mile walk around the lake, which is just a few short blocks away from our home. In short, live in a beautiful home with quick and easy access to some of Oakland's best to offer, plus SF a short BART away! The Brooklyn to San Francisco's Manhattan, Oakland is the place to go if you want to experience good art, good music, good food, good cocktails, and all the thriving diversity of urban life! We love our 'hood! We're located in the historic Bella Vista neighborhood of Oakland, a truly diverse place with a lot of tall trees and old, interesting family homes. The main house is on top of a hill where you can see all the way to the Bay and out to San Francisco. We're within a mile of beautiful Lake Merritt (around which are *tons* of good bars, restaurants, and interest ing shops), and within a 15-min bus ride to Downtown Oakland and an 11-min bus ride to BART (which will take you into San Francisco or Berkeley).","No pets are allowed in the cottage, but we do have two pets in the main house. Those with all-but-the-most-severe pet allergies should be just fine. We have a sweet-tempered 12 year-old Boston Terrier name Jack, and a friendly 13 year-old cat named Fresca. Both are extremely sweet and mellow, and both are allowed in the backyard (but not in the cottage!), so no need to worry if you use your bathroom in the main house and the cat gets outside. She likes it there!","Having a car is the best way to get around (there is lots of free street parking in our neighborhood), but you can certainly get around without one (Dolores is car-less and does just fine). The #62 bus stops at the end of the block, and it's only an 11-min ride to Lake Merritt BART station (which can take you into San Francisco in 15 min, Berkeley, SFO, etc.). Bus fare is $2.10, BART fare varies but is about $6-7 round trip to San Francisco. The #18 bus is a 15-min ride into the heart of downtown Oakland. For AC Transit (the bus company) and BART info, visit (website hidden), and they can help you plan your route. Also, we are in an urban setting and while it is perfectly safe to walk around during the day, it is smart, as it always is, to keep your wits about you and not to be on your cell phone, or listening to your iPod as you walk about. Lauren and Dolores live together, are partners, and run the cottage. Here is a little bit about both of them.

About Lauren: I enjoy our 1913 Edwardian home here in Oakland. I love working with my hands, always making something or fixing something else. So, you could see me futzing around the place with tools or a brush. I enjoy hiking in our beautiful East Bay regional parks (and beyond.) And, baby – I can cook!! You might easily find me in the kitchen rockin' to indie folk music (or Golden Age musicals and Big Band) and making a batch of New Mexican posole or Bayou Jambalaya! I love good beer and fine wine and spending time with Dolores laughing our butts off. I also enjoy the peace and solitude of our lovely little garden and you can find me and our cat and dog having coffee on the deck in the morning sun. As a member of the Bay Area theatre community I've worked over 20 years as the Managing Director of nonprofit performing arts companies. I see a goodly amount of local theatre from big regional theatres to small cutting edge productions and I love them all!

About Dolores: I'm working on my dissertation in Film Studies at UC Berkeley. I study ""divas"" (for real!), and enjoy a good cocktail, good conversation, and all the films of Catherine Deneuve. I love old movies, good music (all kinds – even opera), and anything strange or ""over-the-top."" No third-party reservations or from anyone who hasn't demonstrated good communication skills. Priority goes to people on a mission: visiting the East Bay, here for work, school, activism, or love, are on a bike tour, or have some compelling/unusual story. I also almost never book more than a couple weeks with someone I haven't met yet. If we agree to a month-long stay, we can negotiate a price. I'm flexible. Want to have friends over? Need a longer stay? Need a place to leave some stuff while you go on an out-of-town excursion? Let's just communicate with each other and work it out. The cat is one of the softest and friendliest you will meet. He doesn't go in the guest bedroom to keep it as a non-allergenic space. I'm a book, art & plant lover and the haven reflects it.

I love meeting people who I otherwise wouldn't meet! I like to make people feel at home and to provide enough information so that my guests can enjoy my place as much as I do.

For us as hosts, Airbnb is more than just a way to make extra cash. We genuinely love meeting and connecting with new people, sharing our passion for where we live (both our home and the area), and offering phenomenal hospitality. We strive for the kind of care that one reads about in Greek mythology when someone stumbling at your doorstep could be a god in disguise :)

As guests, we are so grateful to have the freedom and flexibility that Airbnb offers, and we aim to leave your place exactly as we found it. I've been known to actually do light cleaning before heading out so as to make your job as a host easier ;)

Our lifestyle in CA includes the best of both nature adventures and culture experiences. We love cooking with local ingredients, eating delicious food from recommended haunts, playing with our son, gardening, and enjoy all of CA's amazing vistas.

If you choose to stay with us, we plan to take care of you. If you accept our request, we'll be kind, generous, and respectful of your home and its rules.

Ciao!

My love of baking began when I was just 4 years old and spent much of my time at my mother's side while she worked in The Vienna Bakery of Tempe, AZ. Little did I know I would move from art and dance to baking as my life's work.

Along with baking, I love the outdoors and am most happy when I am hiking and even happier the rare times I manage to pitch a tent somewhere beautiful; like Yosemite National Park. My musical taste is all over the map. From straight up jazz to 60's and 70's rock to music from all over the world.

I have one daughter who has given me three super charged grandchildren, whom I just adore! You may meet them during your stay with me.

I look forward to meeting all of you who choose to visit my home. You will find it to be very comfortable and inviting.

Foodie favorites like Crixia Cakes, Sweet Adeline's Bakery, Emilia's Pizzeria, Easy Cajun, and Alchemy Collective are easy walking distance. Both Whole Foods and Berkeley Bowl, widely regarded as the best community market in the East Bay, are five blocks away. The neighborhood continues to develop rapidly with new restaurants and amenities opening all the time.

"We are offering you the special treat of life on a farm right in the heart of the city, where things are a little different than you may expect and refreshing new experiences await you at every turn. So give yourself time to adjust and sink into the uniqueness of the place, it is really something special. We have young kids so Fossil Farm is very kid friendly with all the basic amenities you'd need. That said, it is a farm, so hand sanitizing and watching your children as they encounter new things is always a good idea.", "Fossil Farm is 2.5 blocks to Ashby BART train station, and has a #18 bus stop right outside that takes you to either downtown Berkeley or Downtown Oakland. We are a 15-25 minute walk or 5-10 minute bike ride to the businesses and nightlife of downtown Berkeley, the Elmwood, Temescal, as well as UC Berkeley/CAL. 5 minutes to (PHONE NUMBER HIDDEN) freeway onramp. Walk Score of 89. The neighborhood also offers plenty of long-term parking that's good for a week or more if you pay attention to the signs and avoid monthly or bimonthly street cleaning. Parking is 2 hours in front of the house, but only 8am-6pm each day. I take pride in every detail to make the space feel beautiful, clean, inspiring, & exceptionally comfortable (see all reviews). There is space in your room for you to unpack & dedicated cabinets and shelves in the fridge for your food, so that you feel as 'at home' as you can. As a guest on Airbnb I know what makes me feel 'at home' when I'm traveling; I strive to provide even more than that for you. There is a separate bathroom for use only by AirBNB guests. I will interact with you as little or as much as you like. The house is spacious enough for you to carve out your own space. I love getting to know other people and will be happy to help you with anything you need regarding restaurant tips, public transportation options, cafes etc, but I also respect that you might be on a solo journey. I'll take my cue from you! We are walking distance to the Temescal District of Oakland which is flourishing with shops, restaurants, cafes, bars; a post office, pharmacy, produce shop with plenty of organic, gluten free, and allergy friendly options, taqueria, artisanal cheese shop, and dedicated gluten free bakery. An express bus to Bart is a five minute walk away, or you can walk the .9 miles yourself. Other bus lines provide access to greater Oakland/Berkeley area. We get asked a lot about safety! Our neighborhood looks gritty, but is safe. We've never had a problem in 7+ years of living here. That said, we advise all our guests to keep alert and conscientious when walking around (as you would in any urban area). Take a cab if you're coming home very late from the city (around $7.00), and/or park at the Bart station ($2.50/day) so you have your car. 3. We have a baby! He usually sleeps through the night. On the occasions that he doesn't, we attend to him before he truly cries, so the chances of you waking up are slim. Nonetheless, we provide earplugs and a small white noise machine to help you get a great night of sleep no matter what.", "MacArthur Bart (frequent trains) to Downtown San Francisco, the Oakland Airport, and San Francisco Airport is a 15 minute walk (if you amble); 5 minute drive; and 8 minute bike ride away; there are buses and cabs that connect from there to our house. For us as hosts, Airbnb is more than just a way to make extra cash. We genuinely love meeting and connecting with new people, sharing our passion for where we live (both our home and the area), and offering phenomenal hospitality. We strive for the kind of care that one reads about in Greek mythology when someone stumbling at your doorstep could be a god in disguise :)

Our lifestyle in CA includes the best of both nature adventures and culture experiences. We love cooking with local ingredients, eating delicious food from recommended haunts, playing with our son, gardening, and enjoy all of CA's amazing vistas.

If you choose to stay with us, we plan to take care of you. If you accept our request, we'll be kind, generous, and respectful of your home and its rules.

Ciao!

On nights when I'm not out for something social, I go to bed by 10:30pm and wake up between 8-9am. (I sleep late to make up for lost sleep in the middle of the night.)

Every now and then, I play piano in the evenings. My music is in the realm of pop and gospel."

Many of our guests come here as a base camp for exploring San Francisco, but Oakland is HOT. It's in the middle of a rapid transformation and the air is just crackling with energy. In all our travels, we've discovered that it's easy to visit a place, but it's hard to visit a time. If you want to experience a city that's alive, where Something Is Happening, where the glory days are here and now -- then Oakland is where you want to be.

We (Lewis and Ginger) are two UC Berkeley alums and former co-ops. As of this January, we are also new parents! Lewis plays with computers and music, Ginger plays with glass and design. Our son, Jules, is learning to blow spit bubbles. We love coffee, brew beer, throw BBQs and religiously attend the East Bay Bike Party. A few years back, we bought a fixer-upper and have been terraforming it here and there as the budget allows. As more and more friends and family started staying the night, we realized we love playing host. So we've decided to open up the place, give Airbnb a try, and play innkeeper to folks passing through.

Together we've traveled to Norway, Peru, Nicaragua, Jalisco Mexico, New York, New Orleans, Boise ID, Madison WI, Denver CO, Salt Lake City, Tucson AZ, Chicago IL, all up and down the US Pacific Coast, Argentina, Philippines, and Bali.

Real estate agents call this area "NOBE", for North Oakland / Berkeley / Emeryville, and the whole area is a great mix of families, artists, tech-workers, and more. It's also easy-access to San Francisco, one of the best cities in the world. Great food, arts, history, and shopping are all at your doorstep. Definitely scroll down to check out our neighborhood guide / map with some of our local favorites! Sometimes visitors ask us if our neighborhood is "safe". We certainly feel safe here! It's common to see dog-owners out for a walk, commuters cycling, or children playing. That said: Oakland is an urban area, so take common-sense precautions. Lock your car, don't leave valuables in view, lock the door to the apartment, and be aware of your surroundings, especially at night. After dark, we recommend walking from Rockridge or Ashby BART station (rather than MacArthur), or calling a Lyft/Uber/taxi.", "We have a lush garden in the front and back yards, with an arbor with seating in the back! We also have chickens in a coop in the backyard, which we sometimes let "free range".", "On-street parking is free and plentiful a block away, or you can buy parking permits from us at $25 per two weeks to park right out front. We're also walking distance (about twenty minutes walk) from three BART stops and many bus lines (as short as two or three minutes walk). If you're a cyclist, leave your bike behind our tall locking gate at night and in the mornings enjoy the flat local neighborhood (or the hills of Berkeley if that's your speed!) Uber and Lyft are also very convenient to the house. (CityCarShare and ZipCar are within a mile as well, though they require membership.) We've spent extended periods without our own car because cycling, public transit, and ridesharing are so easy from our location. More on the parking pass: They're $25 for two weeks. Without one you are in theory limited to 2 hrs of parking between the hours of 9 and 6 right in front of our house (evenings are free), or you can park on any adjoining street (56th between Dover and Shattuck is the only block).

Our house is located right smack in the middle of the two areas- a hip, nicer neighborhood juxtaposed next to a little bit gritty, developing neighborhood. It's quick and easy to BART or drive into San Francisco. There are lots of fun things to do nearby in Oakland and Berkeley as well. We are about a 15-20 minute walk to the nearest BART stop. Please be alert and mindful when walking alone at night as the neighborhood can sometimes feel sketchy. We have never had any problems, but it's good to use your city smarts in Oakland in general. To the east of our house it's about a 15 minute walk to Temescal Alley, recently named one of the best, most walkable neighborhoods in the country. There are great restaurants and cafes, such as Burma Superstar or Pizzaiolo. To the west of our street, towards MLK Jr Way, you'll find a sometimes sketchy patch with homeless people. We've never had any security problems." "New Airbnb users: Please complete your profile. If you are new to Airbnb and have no reviews, we do ask that you tell us about yourself and your visit. T or drive into San Francisco. There are lots of fun things to do nearby in Oakland and Berkeley as well. We are about a 15-20 minute walk to the nearest BART stop. Please be alert and mindful when walking alone at night as the neighborhood can sometimes feel sketchy. We have never had any problems, but it's good to use your city smarts in Oakland in general. To the east of our house it's about a 15 minute walk to Temescal Alley, recently named one of the best, most walkable neighborhoods in the country. There are great restaurants and cafes, such as Burma Superstar or Pizzaiolo. To the west of our street, towards MLK Jr Way, you'll find a sometimes sketchy patch with homeless people. We've never had any security problems. New Airbnb users: Please complete your profile. If you are new to Airbnb and have no reviews, we do ask that you tell us about yourself and your visit. If you are a super light sleeper or expect deafening silence this is not the best place to stay. Features a comfy pillow-top California King size bed, toilet and shower, kitchen with oven, microwave, coffee maker and full-size refrigerator. There is no stove top but there are 2 electric burners to boil water, fry eggs, etc. The unit is very kid friendly and even has toys neatly tucked away in the living room. The bed can sleep 2 adults and a small child. There is a couch in the living room that is made up of real mattresses and it sleeps 2 very comfortably. We have also added a flat screen tv with roku, dvd player and about 50 dvds to choose from. Plenty of parking, wi-fi, huge deck for private use. All this and you are still 15 minutes from downtown Oakland and about 30-40 minutes from SF, Berkeley or Alameda. ", "This is true trailer living - even though it looks like a cute apartment - it's really a camper! This means that it is not hooked up for the house water lines - everything flows in and out of tanks. Therefore, showers should be short and careful water usage is greatly appreciated. We are happy to fill up the water if needed, but the tanks only hold 50 gallons. Ditto for the water heater - it's tiny so it can only heat enough water for two people taking quick showers. It takes a few hours to heat up the water - so you'll need to be mindful of this and turn on the switch beforehand. The electricity is hooked up the house grid - but the fuses can not handle everything on at the same time. For example, if you turn on the air conditioning full blast, the microwave and the electric kettle, you might blow a fuse. It's a luxurious camper - but it has it's limits. The room for hire is rather large (as big as some studio apartments) however there is only one window which overlooks the living room and skylight shining d", "It is our pleasure to extend our Bay Area housing miracle to our global sharing community. Vaulted ceilings, 1400 sqft, large patio, HUGE bedroom with q bed & convertible couch (can sleep up to 4), W/D in unit, dishwasher, 1.5 bath, skylight. I've lived all over the Bay Area and this is certainly a rare space. Hidden at the top floor of the Excellent Commercial Center you would never know this secret gem is here (thus the posting title). The layout is bi-level and very spacious giving it a loft/condo-like feel, although technically it's an apartment. The lower level is comprised of a living room lit by a large skylight and 25 foot ceilings, a modern kitchen equipped with marble top counters and updated appliances (including a dishwasher), a half bath, in-unit washer and dryer, and an open air patio great for outdoor BBQs, relaxing, and stargazing. There is hardwood flooring throughout and modern mid-century styling. Upstairs there are two bedrooms (yours being the master) divided by a wall, none. We are in the heart of Chinatown in downtown Oakland. This area is bustling during the day but is generally quiet around 8pm. We are central to a ton of great restaurants and nightlife venues. Honestly, this is the most convenient area of Oakland. Typical to most downtown city areas, expect some homelessness, graffiti, metered parking, et cetera. This isn't a scary area of Oakland but it is a downtown area so not ideal for grandparents or people looking for a suburban atmosphere. You would be sharing space with a very chilled out married couple who have active social lives and positive vibes. We are 3 blocks away from the 12th street BART station (15 minute ride to downtown SF - an easier commute to SF than many places within SF!), and a 1/2 mile to Lake Merritt, Jack London Square, and the hip Uptown District. This area has a 99 walking score and is pretty much a walkers/bikers paradise. If you are coming carless, this area is a dream. If you own a car there are some lots nearby where you can purchase a space for a month. Otherwise, it's mostly metered parking Mon-Sat 8am-6pm.

Perfect for a couple. Our one bedroom apartment is on the top floor (third) of a Brooklyn-esque walk up in Lake Merritt. We are directly between Lake Merritt Bart and the Oakland Museum (a half block from each). The apartment faces away from the street, overlooking a shared green space. Hardwood floors, lots of sunlight, spacious closets, beautiful molding and claw-foot bathtub. The neighborhood is amazing! Weekends are especially fun. Explore the Chinatown farmer's market on Friday morning (9th and Broadway), the Lake Merritt farmer's market on Saturday morning (across from the Grand Lake Theater), or the Laney College Flea Market (7th and Fallon St) on Sunday mornings. Don't miss Off the Grid every Friday evening, when the Oakland Museum closes down 10th (right around the corner from us) for amazing fusion taco trucks and live bands. There's a pop up bar inside the museum and, if you venture inside, amazing views of the lake at twilight. If it's the first Friday of the month, take the BART to 19th and walk up Telegraph to explore the Art Murmur, Oakland's monthly festivities of live music, galleries, performance art, hidden beer gardens, and street food. Walk to Jack London Square (pop into his slanted floor one room bar or the famous chicken and waffles spot), Old Oakland, and the original Blue Bottle Coffee. The thriving uptown neighborhood is a 15 minute walk away. Lake Merritt BART station is 1 block away. 12th Street BART station is a 8 minute walk away. , https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/71174840/270aabbcboriginal.jpg?aki\_policy=small, https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/71174840/270aabbcboriginal.jpg?aki\_policy=medium, https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/71174840/270aabbcboriginal.jpg?aki\_policy=large, https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/71174840/270aabbcboriginal.jpg?aki\_policy=x\_large, 882609, <https://www.airbnb.com/users/show/882609>, Nathalie, 2011-07-28, "Oakland, California, United States", "I've returned to my home in the Bay Area after a decade split between the East Coast and in Vietnam. Claremont Hotel already sold out.

Settle in with a glass of the house Sherry and enjoy our beautifully appointed 3BR / 3BA elegant ultra modern home ~ floor-to ceiling glass w indows, doors opening onto a deck-- perfect for entertaining or a quiet evening aperitif. You will find milk, eggs, cereal, oj & bagels in the fridge and an always perfect brew of coffee using our Nespresso Coffee machine, pods and foamer. If that doesnt do it for you--8 minute walk down the residential hill to Peets and a cafe across from the Claremont Resort and Spa.

Local architect designed with glass, slate, maple floors, sky lit entry way (in-home elevator) makes this light-filled home perfect for indoor-outdoor entertaining or calming seclusion. The main floor features a huge, airy great room with high ceilings, a custom designed large glass dining table with more glass doors--opening to the garden terrace. The kitchen is fully equipped with top-of-the line appliances.

The home has THREE bedrooms -- each on a separate floor, each with its own bathroom. The MASTER bedroom w Queen bed has breathtaking views, a fireplace, en-suite bathroom & master sitting area. The SECOND bedroom's Queen bed offers a custom-made mattress with wonderful support w/plush enveloping comfort. The THIRD bedroom has an expensive BUNK BED with full length/full width high-end mattresses and private bathroom. All three bedrooms offer privacy, comfort, excellent reading lights, and the entire property offers high-speed wireless connectivity.

While the home provides a peaceful oasis, it is centrally located just a few blocks from the UC Berkely campus, the Greek Theater, and the Cal Memorial football stadium. It is within easy walking distance to the many charming restaurants, shops and cafes of the Claremont and Elmswood Districts. Hikers and joggers can enjoy miles of trails within the Claremont Regional Preserve. The UC Botanical Gardens, Tilden Park, the Lawrence Hall of Science, the Berkeley Marina and UC's Zellerbach Hall are just a few of the nearby attractions.

The house is ideally located to serve as your base camp while you explore the surrounding region. It provides quick and easy access to all the major freeways and to public transportation. It is a 20 minute drive from downtown San Fransisco, 30 minutes to the Oakland airport, and 45 minutes to the SFO. The Napa and Sonoma wine country is 1-1/2 hours away.

You're welcome to lounge in the living room, pull weeds with us in the garden, and pick & eat tomatoes when you do! Lots of nice things because it is right in the center of the whole Bay Area. Fifteen minutes to downtown SF or UC Berkeley. Plenty of street parking. Close to shopping center. Walking distance to Safeway, Starbucks, Home Depot, Shangrila vegan restaurant and Lanesplitter Pizza. Free organic produce from the several community gardens nearby. Not far from Marin and beach. Weather is nice most of the time and even sunny when Berkeley and SF are fogged in. Neighbors are friendly (one an Airbnb host!) Every age and race. Lots of younger people moving in and fixing up the old houses. Not far from several freeways entrances to all points. Free Shuttle to BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit). Buses to everywhere including to BART, which goes faster to everywhere. Biking popular. You can take your bike on shuttle, buses and BART. Especially nice is that Adeline St. takes you to a little-used entrance right up at the Toll Plaza of the SF Bay Bridge, thus avoiding long San Francisco commute lines from the other entrances! The idea has spread and this zipcode has become a hothouse of creativity and innovation, attracting fine artists and young professionals. I speak French, Italian and Dog.

I invite you to discover why we love it here. I wouldn't live anywhere else and will welcome you and orient you to the local gems from the artists' cooperatives to Pixar. I love that this neighborhood is the hub of the San Francisco Bay area so in less than 20 minutes we can get to museums in San Francisco or the Pacific Film Archive at UC Berkeley.

Lots of folks working in San Francisco live where we are for half the price of living in SF. For me this beats living in a posh neighborhood. New building art and new community gardens keep appearing. The rest of the world should copy us inviting inspiration and real community.

In addition to my own art and documentary making, it has been a lifetime passion to create and share living situations with others. So as far as I'm concerned you're family when you're here, even if you want to be very private. If you'd like I'll happily provide lots of freebies like

- picking you up when you arrive
- stocking your own refrigerator ahead or during your stay if you'd like
- taking you on a guided tour of the whole area for either fun or just so you can get around with ease
- provide you with maps of routes, transit, great restaurants and cafes within walking distance
- I even loaned my car to a guest one time!

Also if you order ahead, I'll cook great meals for you (I studied at Cordon Bleu in Paris and with the chef of Baba Muktananda at the nearby Siddha Yoga Ashram.)

I love the nearby beaches, foreign films, Classical, Jazz and Bluegrass music, singing, gardening, being there for others, meditating, demonstrating for social justice and dancing. I love Italy and France where I have lived and I speak both languages fluently.

documentary work has been seen on PBS and the Discovery Channel. I love meeting new people and learning from the local culture of the places I visit. I'm a couchsurfer turned recent airbnb'er (if that's even a noun yet). I'm thankful Airbnb came along allowing travelers to experience the local culture/people, but in a place that's nicer than just a couch :)

I recently moved to a new place and will be putting my spare room up later this month. I'm hoping to meet Airbnb hosts throughout my travels that can come visit the Bay area so I can reciprocate their generosity.

I'm always mindful of the hosts property and treat it as if it was my own place. I can provide more details, just ask.

The idea has spread and this zipcode has become a hot house of creativity and innovation, attracting fine artists and young professionals. I speak French, Italian and Dog.

I invite you to discover why we love it here. I wouldn't live anywhere else and will welcome you and orient you to the local gems from the artists' cooperatives to Pixar. I love that this neighborhood is the hub of the San Francisco Bay area so in less than 20 minutes we can get to museums in San Francisco or the Pacific Film Archive at UC Berkeley.

Lots of folks working in San Francisco live where we are for half the price of living in SF. For me this beats living in a posh neighborhood. New building art and new community gardens keep appearing. The rest of the world should copy us inviting inspiration and real community.

In addition to my own art and documentary making, it has been a lifetime passion to create and share living situations with others. So as far as I'm concerned you're family when you're here, even if you want to be very private. If you'd like I'll happily provide lots of freebies like

- picking you up when you arrive
- stocking your own refrigerator ahead or during your stay if you'd like
- taking you on a guided tour of the whole area for either fun or just so you can get around with ease
- provide you with maps of routes, transit, great restaurants and cafes within walking distance
- I even loaned my car to a guest one time!

Also if you order ahead, I'll cook great meals for you (I studied at Cordon Bleu in Paris and with the chef of Baba Muktananda at the nearby Siddha Yoga Ashram.)

I love the nearby beaches, foreign films, Classical, Jazz and Bluegrass music, singing, gardening, being there for others, meditating, demonstrating for social justice and dancing. I love Italy and France where I have lived and I speak both languages fluently.

My artworks have appeared in galleries and museums across the US and my documentary work has been seen on PBS and the Discovery Channel. w. We don't want to keep up already tired parents downstairs. :) Whenever possible, we'll greet you. If we're traveling and can't welcome you then our wonderful neighbors will check you in. After that the place is yours! We love Oakland and West Oakland in particular. First settled after the 1906 San Francisco earthquake, this neighborhood is rich with amazing victorian homes. These residential pockets are tucked between industrial corridors that lead down to the Ports of Oakland. There are some really cool architectural gems and spots to get food in our neighborhood (Brown Sugar Kitchen and Fuse Box are two of the closest and best). You can get to Downtown Oakland, Temescal, Lake Merritt and Oakland's many great neighborhoods within minutes. Hikes in the redwoods are a quick 15-20 minute drive away. All that said, it's important to note that West Oakland is not considered a beautiful neighborhood by typical standards. It's industrial, and does have some pockets of blight. We have never had any trouble AT ALL but just to be on the safe side, we recommend that you not walk around the neighborhood at night. Unfortunately, if you don't have a car or you want a neighborhood that's more fancy, our listing may not be for you. Please note that while we have a TV we don't have cable. If you have a computer, you can hook it up to the TV and watch things like Netflix. The pink bedroom looks a little different now than it does in the photographs. There is a book case and desk in that room now. Otherwise it's the same.", "Our house is super convenient for getting to Downtown Oakland or Downtown San Francisco by car. We're the last neighborhood in Oakland before you head over the Bay Bridge to the City ($6 westbound toll). If you have a bicycle, you can ride to or from BART in 10 minutes or less. The ride is super flat and there are bike lanes. If you are car free and bike free, this area is a little harder to get around. It takes about half an hour to walk to BART and while we have had absolutely issues with safety at any time, you should note that this area isn't the most pedestrian friendly. It's an industrial/residential area that doesn't have a lot of night time street life. Walking home alone at night is probably not the best idea.", https://a0.muscache.com/im/pictures/51452729/398c0e03\_original.jpg?aki\_policy=small, https://a0.muscache.com/im/pictures/51452729/398c0e03\_original.jpg?aki\_policy=medium, https://a0.muscache.com/im/pictures/51452729/398c0e03\_original.jpg?aki\_policy=large, https://a0.muscache.com/im/pictures/51452729/398c0e03\_original.jpg?aki\_policy=x\_large, 2507885, <https://www.airbnb.com/users/show/2507885>, Ellie, 2012-05-31, "Oakland, California, United States", "Originally from Upstate New York, I now live in Oakland - a wonderful city to live and to visit! "The apartment is one of four in an Mediterranean style home from the 1920s. Great care was taken to keep the integrity of the original home, and this unit used to be the great room, and the kitchen was the atrium/garden room. 3 of the four walls in the kitchen are huge windows, with french doors separating it from the living room. There is a dining area, with a dining table against the wall that can be pulled out for a formal dinner. The living room has a 40in TV with AppleTV. I have Hulu plus, HBOgo and Showtime Now. With your own apple devices you can push any of your shows or movies to the television. There is also a stereo with a record player. The bathroom has a bathtub and shower.

I have traveled to Egypt, Senegal, Mali, Ghana, Ethiopia, Morocco, Greece, Ecuador, Costa Rica, St. Lucia, Martinique, Dominica, Mexico, Puerto Rico and many U.S. states. I love dancing, music (reggae, dancehall, hip hop, Nigerian and Ghanaian music, Coupe d'Cale, ndombolo) sunshine and nature. My home is my sanctuary and workplace.

Depending on our schedules you may see me working at home in the kitchen during the days, or we could not meet at all because I'm out working until late at night. I enjoy talking with my guests when I see them, sharing a bit about ourselves and sometimes build friendships that have been long-lasting. I also respect guests' privacy and don't expect us to become best friends :) If I am making dinner or dessert while you are home, I may invite you to have some.

Beyond ideas that may guide my life, the ultimate test has been how well does the guideline work in reality? Does it make for more kindness and well-being or create the opposite?

Prior to working in software, I lived and sometimes thrived in academia, earning a PhD at UC Berkeley (science and mathematics education) and teaching at several San Francisco bay area institutions including UC Davis, Mills College and Haas Business School of UC Berkeley.

In the 80s, I found the software world far more exciting, innovative and suitable for my temperament. My most recent business, co-founded and co-run with my brother in Boston, provided a software platform, Training JumpStart, for companies to run their e-learning businesses.

And the apartment can comfortably sleep three people with a queen bed in the bedroom and a large 6-person sofa in the living room. -Complete kitchen fully stocked with utensils None. The Lake Merritt neighborhood is by far the coolest in Oakland. Surrounding a 3.4 mile natural lagoon with g rassy shores for picnicking and barbeques, this neighborhood is a diverse community of young singles, established families, and seniors—of all races, orientations, and occupations. There's a bay-area famous farmer's market every Saturday morning, just two blocks from our apartment. It boasts local produce, bay area food trucks, and live music performances. The Lake Merritt neighborhood is also home to the Oakland Museum of California, about a 15 minute walk from our apartment. This art, history, and natural science museum has an incredible permanent installation of California's history, as well as rotating exhibits. And every Friday, as part of Oakland's First Fridays tradition (first friday of each month, the museum hosts a party with food trucks, live music in its amphitheater, and reduced admission. And all throughout Oakland on First Fridays, galleries open their doors to everyone. (check out the guidebook as I have listed some great spots right near the house)! Best part of this place is the central location. Great way to discover all the magic the Bay Area has to offer: Alameda Island, Jack London Square, Downtown Oakland, Berkeley, San Francisco. Whether you want to take a hike, row a boat, or enjoy the city, everything is accessible!","The Bay Area is very congested, you want to psychologically prepare to spend a fair amount of time getting around. I have gotten very strategic about how I travel in the last three years!... For example, if I am going to downtown San Francisco, I take my car and leave it near the Bart station and take the metro into SF which is faster and avoids the expensive downtown parking! The ferry is also a very pleasant way to travel and parking near Jack London square is free!","A few steps away from Bus (14) that brings you straight to the Bart. Bart ride to downtown San Francisco or Berkeley is about 12 minutes. You have to count an hour with public transportation but no issues with parking in the city! e,2014-01-03,"Oakland, California, United States","My name is Antoine.

I have been an expatriate in the United States for about 7 years now.
I am an ocean engineer and work on marine renewable energy concepts, notably floating wind turbines. I live with my wife Anna who is an expatriate from Russia. Anna is an innovation manager looking for new technologies that will make our lives better in the future.

We are based out of Oakland, but we have also lived in different regions of France and Portugal. We have traveled extensively in Europe, and a bit in Asia and Africa, besides North America. We are sharing our house because we love meeting new people from around the world, and we know that the San Francisco Bay area attracts many people, so that's great!

We are keen on nature and the outdoors, and many different sports, such as mountain biking, hiking, climbing, Krav Maga, kiteboarding, and yoga to name a few. We also love cinema, theatre and music. We also enjoy great conversations!

We hope that our paths will cross sooner rather than later! Super convenient location with easy access to Oakland, San Francisco and other adventures. The guest level has a private entrance and is your home away from home. We have a 1 bedroom private guest level that is available most of the year. It has a separate private entrance and large bedroom, living room, bathroom and balcony. The master bedroom opens out onto a pondless cascading waterfall and a nice outdoor seating area. - Queen size tempurpedic bed - Pull out full/double size bed - Dining table for 4-6 people - Pack and play and air mattresses available upon request - Mini fridge, toaster, microwave The full guest level, garden and yard. We will likely be in the main house, so we are on hand to make your stay awesome. You may hear our children running around upstairs. :) Neighbourhood :: Tree-lined and tranquil, Longridge Road is prized for its distinctive, well-preserved architecture as well as its close proximity to public transportation, and everyday destinations for shopping, dining, and recreation. A 10-15 min walk from shopping, restaurants, an amazing farmers market on Saturdays, Lake Merritt and much more. Featured in Secret Stairs: East Bay", NOTE: We have two children and it is an older house so you may hear them playing upstairs in the morning (6:30am) and throughout the day :), Bus picks up about 50 ft from the house for easy access into San Francisco (~25 min) in the mornings and evenings. Lots of other public transit nearby depending on where you are looking to go., https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/dff18805-56a2-499d-92cd-6e24352ad1af.jpg?aki_policy=small, https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/dff18805-56a2-499d-92cd-6e24352ad1af.jpg?aki_policy=medium, https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/dff18805-56a2-499d-92cd-6e24352ad1af.jpg?aki_policy=large, https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/dff18805-56a2-499d-92cd-6e24352ad1af.jpg?aki_policy=x_large, 2074170, https://www.airbnb.com/users/show/2074170, Bobby, 2012-04-05, "Oakland, California, United States", "Avid traveler, eater and chef. Jessie and I live in a beautiful, charming and very spacious 3 bedroom apartment in Uptown Oakland. She is a free lance writer and I am in Digital Media Sales; both of us travel a ton but not always at the same time. Since both of us are gone a good amount of the month, we'd love to share our place with like-minded travelers who are looking to experience the bay area in a convenient and homey place with great neighbors and a great yard! In most cases, unless specified, there is 1-2 private rooms available and one of us would likely be home at the time of stay.

I personally am a huge AirBnB advocate. I absolutely love to see cities from a local's perspective and think it's the only way to experience different cultures in an authentic way. I am passionate about cultural expansion, immersion, and the new wave of shared economy businesses. I firmly believe travel is the best form of education when done right. We are fun, outgoing, communicative and able to get along with most anyone and are always up for a good time.

I love music almost as much as I love travel and it is a major part of my life. 5 things I could never live without:

- Passport
- Sun
- Mexican Food
- Music
- Friends

Since then, I've lived in Dallas, DC, San Diego, and now Oakland, and have worked everywhere from a small family business to the US Department of State. Oakland is pretty awesome though, and I hope to call it home for some time.

My favorite hobbies are traveling, equestrian sports, hiking, running, climbing, biking, reading, snowboarding, and yoga. My goal is to travel to at least one foreign country every year, and my latest journey took me to Jordan, the UAE, and Israel this past summer.

Things I love most include my friends, my family, my animals, good food, good music, and being out in nature.

I'd say that my life motto can be easily defined through one of my favorite quotes: "I arise in the morning torn between a desire to improve the world and a desire to enjoy the world. This makes it hard to plan the day."

The city was rated by Rand McNally as having some of the best weather in the country. Oakland does not have the concentration of tourist amenities present in neighbor city San Francisco directly across the bay to the west, or possess the suburban ethos of San Jose to the south, but the visitor to Oakland could easily spend a few pleasant days here with many things to see and do. Oakland consistently receives a negative image but the city does have some great neighborhoods in its hills, and in recent years Oakland's image has begun to undergo a radical improvement. More middle- and upper-middle class residents of all races have moved into Oakland seeking affordable homes; at least homes more affordable than in nearby San Francisco or San Jose. We live on the property and enjoy welcoming guests in to our space., "This is a huge, mid century modern, open, beautiful space. Our Urban Farmstead is just a short walk from King Estates Open Space, a sweet hike with breathtaking views. The large living room has expansive views of the Bay Area and a walk out deck. Casa on Crest is a large Mid Century Modern home with a lot of character and personality. We live on the property and enjoy welcoming guests into our space. The entire home is available for retreats and other special events. The living room, kitchen, mini courtyard, upper and lower decks, sunroom, and guest suite are all available for use. As well as two restrooms. Hosts will be on site to help you check in and return after check out, but will be available via phone for any questions during your stay. The Location We absolutely love our neighborhood and city! Located in Oakland Hills near East Oakland, Lower Hills and Jack London Square, there is plenty to see and do in the area. Start the day off on the right foot with a stroll through the King Estates Open Space or Leona Quarry Trail. Grab a bagel and cup of freshly-ground coffee at Zocalo Coffeehouse while taking advantage of the free WiFi. Neighborhood markets and shopping are also just a short drive away. Lake Merritt and Downtown Oakland are only a 10 minute drive, Berkeley is 15 minutes away and downtown San Francisco can be reached in a little as 30 minutes if traffic is good. Anthony Chabot and Joaquin Miller State Parks nearby are ideal for horseback riders and hikers. There is plenty to see, hear and taste in Oakland, with the eclectic art scene, Art Murmur, diverse live performances at multiple music venues, and the plethora of tasty dining options throughout the city. When your stomach starts growling, you can't go wrong. Unfortunately the house is not ADA accessible. There are a fair amount of stairs on the property. Street parking is always available but there are no sidewalks on our street. Pets reside on the property but we can relocate them for your retreat if desired.,"The Location We absolutely love our neighborhood and city! I have very successfully managed (2) Airbnb accounts, prior to this one. One I managed on behalf of a Canadian friend who had a flat in San Francisco. The other I managed with a former roommate, where we listed our space often. I have had an incredible time managing both spaces and look forward to earning an excellent reputation here as well! We are very adventurous people. If we want to try/learn something new, we make it happen. If we want to visit some city or country, we do it. There is no point in longing to do something and never doing it. If you want it - do it, and do it now.

We love to travel. Mostly, we work so that we can enjoy the other aspects of life. I personally caught the travel bug when I was 16 and I have tried to go to a new country every year since. In regards to hosting and visiting new places we are very clean and organized.

Food is very important to us. If there is something I don't naturally like the first time, I will try it over and over again until I do. We love to eat and cook everything! We love living in the Bay Area and sharing this awesome part of the world with travelers!

We are very adventurous people. If we want to try/learn something new, we make it happen. If we want to visit some city or country, we do it. There is no point in longing to do something and never doing it. If you want it - do it, and do it now.

We love to travel. Mostly, we work so that we can enjoy the other aspects of life. I personally caught the travel bug when I was 16 and I have tried to go to a new country every year since. In regards to hosting and visiting new places we are very clean and organized.

Food is very important to us. If there is something I don't naturally like the first time, I will try it over and over again until I do. We love to eat and cook everything! ginally from Germany, I've traveled the world and now live in Oakland, CA with my husband. We're both interested in design, architecture, dance, outdoor adventures and food (cooking, eating, making, reading etc). We're city people with a serious appreciation for nature. When traveling, staying with locals and/or getting an experience as close to authentic as possible is more important than luxury.

Easy parking and street level entry into your own lovely courtyard. Inside, large windows look onto a red plum tree and hills in the distance. The main room has a very comfortable queen size bed with fine linens and down pillows and comforter, a beautiful travertine covered gas fireplace with lit sculpture niche, a sheepskin rug, totally controllable lighting dimmers, and top down - bottom up shades. The bathroom is unique and artistic. A number of people who've stayed with us have named this serene space, "The Sanctuary". We provide filtered water, breakfast breads and cereals,on request, fruit, coffee and tea in the room. There is a small refrigerator and toaster an induction cook-top for light cooking, and a outdoor 2 burner propane BBQ, which in our climate sees service from March- October and on warm days in the winter too . We are minutes from Montclair Village, close to downtown Oaklan","A very private tranquil healing space, full of interesting details, an ultra comfortable bed, lovely books and the sound of birds in the morning. The shower looks up to the eucalyptus trees , open the door onto your private entry patio. Enjoy !!! A special retreat-like setting; private and detached, newly renovated cottage. Easy parking and street level entry into your own lovely courtyard. Inside, large windows look onto a red plum tree and hills in the distance. The main room has a very comfortable queen size bed with fine linens and down pillows and comforter, a beautiful travertine covered gas fireplace with lit sculpture niche, a sheepskin rug, totally controllable lighting dimmers, and top down - bottom up shades. The bathroom is unique and artistic. A number of people who've stayed with us have named this serene space, "The Sanctuary". We provide filtered water, breakfast breads and cereals,on request, fruit, coffee and tea in the room. There is a small refrigerator",none,"Our street is super freindly, lots of kids and dogs , a 35 min loop walk will take you up to great sweeping views of the bay .Little montclair is 5 min. by car or 25 to walk ( less if you're in good shape) has a few great restaurants and most things you need and , count em - 4 coffee / tea shops . Sunday we have a super farmers market","Lately we've had some owls in the evening, and the occasional red tail hawk. The room is very unique with lots of creative details by Ted a long time stone artist. Teds"" home recorded CD of bansuri ( Indian flute) music is always always by the cd player . Hope you enjoy it .","Its best to have a car. The roads in the hills here are charming and winding so your first drive may take a little extra attention , We save you the parking space right in front of the space. we are 2 minutes from the freeway. It is approximately 20 minutes to downtown San Francisco, 70 minutes to Napa or Sonoma valley, or the beaches of Point Reyes National Seashore. The old growth redwoods are only an hour away at Muir woods or an hour and 45 minutes to gorgeous Big Basin Redwood State Park. I've known people to drive to Yosemite and back in a day . though I wouldn't recommend it ( Just over 3 hrs each way)",https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/34812733/e3400992_original.jpg?aki_policy=small,https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/34812733/e3400992_original.jpg?aki_policy=medium,https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/34812733/e3400992_original.jpg?aki_policy=large,https://a2.muscache.com/im/pictures/34812733/e3400992_original.jpg?aki_policy=x_large,1303404,https://www.airbnb.com/users/show/1303404,Ted And Stefanie,2011-10-17,"Oakland, California, United States","We are a couple of happily transplanted New Yorkers who love the abundant nature and culture of the bay area.
